PRESENTATION

Our new play in English, "Doctor Cranky and the Magic Stone" is a wonderful journey through emotions, senses and theatre.

This adventure, full of music and sound and audiovisual stimuli for the little ones, features a time machine that will allow our protagonists to go in search of a very special stone.

SYNOPSIS

Doctor Cranky is always sad, very sad. Besides, he wants to find a very special stone to make a new experiment. So, his three assistants called Elda, Enrico and Robert decide to help him. They are going to find that special stone, so Doctor Cranky will be happy.

To look for the stone they decide to use a Time Machine that will allow them to find it faster.

The machine will take them to the past, to prehistory, and also to the future. In prehistory they will meet two very peculiar men and, in the future, they will meet two robots who will give them the very special stone they are looking for.

But Doctor Cranky plans to use the stone to make people feel as sad as he does; luckily Enrico hears everything and can warn his friends.

Will Doctor Cranky succeed in making his plans come true? Don't miss this new adventure full of fun, music and lots of surprises!

DIDACTIS OBJECTIVES

Our aim is to offer a fun play through which the student can approach English in a fun way.

There are many ways to work and assimilate the language, and we believe that theatre offers a very attractive possibility for learning.

As always, we provide you with teaching material to present in class before and after the performance. It is important to work in the classroom so that the students get more out of the activity.

We hope you find this play, and our project in general, useful.

GENERAL OBJECTIVES

- To promote communicative competence in foreign languages in students through a didactic and fun activity.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- To take the student to see a play in English with all the elements that should be part of the dramatic event: costumes, scenery, special effects, music and dialogues.
- To develop imagination, creativity and a taste for the theatre.
- Expand expressive resources: physical (gestures), vocal (sounds, songs) and linguistic (expressions and vocabulary).
- To have fun.
- Support the process of teaching English through songs and dramatic games.
- Learn and work through music.
- Create through our didactic guide and activities resources so that they can familiarise themselves with the play.

METHODOLOGY

We propose a project based on theatre as a means of encouraging interest and enjoyment in a foreign language, in this case English. To do this, we have established a series of worksheets to work on in class before and after seeing the play: Doctor Cranky and the special stone. We also recommend that you work with your students on VOCABULARY AND SYNOPSIS.

Another very interesting resource is the SONGS. You will find the lyrics in a document called LYRICS OF THE SONGS and you can listen to the audio tracks through our website (user area). If you cannot access the material through the user area, our advisors will help you by sending all the documents to your email.

You will also receive a document with additional activities. This is information that will be useful for the students when doing the worksheets. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to get in touch, you can contact with your EDUCATIONAL ADVISER (Aurora Chica or Inma Rodríguez) or with the company through our email (enlunateatro@yahoo.es) or our phone number 618 720 491.

Thank you very much. We hope you enjoy this new experience.
